

Botswana Communication Green Base Station Program

Overview

How will the World Bank support Botswana?

“The World Bank is pleased to support Botswana’s commitment to expand domestic energy generation with renewable solutions. In addition to financing, the World Bank will provide technical assistance to facilitate further renewable energy projects.

Is Botswana ready for Energy Independence & sustainability?

On February 14, 2025, Botswana took a bold step toward energy independence and sustainability. With Parliament approving two critical loan authorization bills supported by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) and the Green Climate Fund (GCF), the nation is primed to unlock its vast renewable energy potential.

Is Botswana's energy infrastructure a bottleneck?

Botswana’s energy infrastructure has been a bottleneck for growth. The country’s peak demand of 627 MW is precariously served by 892 MW of coal-dependent capacity—comprising the older Morupule A with a capacity of 132 MW and the newer but persistently underperforming Morupule B at 600 MW.

Why is Botswana transforming its power grid?

As load shedding and energy insecurity threaten economic growth, Botswana’s leadership is responding with a plan to transform its grid and bring affordable power to its people.
