Government subsidies for solar energy storage

Overview

Are government subsidies sufficient for energy storage?

The government's incentive funds, including policy publicity and fiscal subsidies designed to encourage investment and industrial growth among energy storage operators, are insufficient compared to the national fiscal subsidies granted to the energy storage industry. Specifically, the subsidy coefficient $S_1 < a_D$.

What is the energy storage capacity subsidy?

Additionally, the energy storage capacity subsidy is a one-time payment of 200 CNY/kW, while there are ongoing subsidies for charging and discharging (0.5 CNY/kWh) and for peak-valley arbitrage (0.7 CNY/kWh). The energy storage system is assumed to operate for 300 days annually, with two charge-discharge cycles per day.

Do government subsidy levels influence energy storage operators' engagement and power system transformation?

Government subsidy levels both influence and are influenced by energy storage operators' engagement and power system transformation. Energy storage operators become proactive when their participation profit coefficient exceeds a critical threshold.

Are there state-level incentives for solar energy storage?

To date, state-level performance incentives for storage have typically been added to solar incentives. Perhaps the best-known state-level storage incentive in the US is California's Self-Generation Incentive Program (SGIP). SGIP provides a dollar per kilowatt ($/kW) rebate for the energy storage installed.
