Jamaica Home solar container energy storage system Manufacturing Plant

Overview

---

In a groundbreaking development for Jamaica's renewable energy landscape, a joint initiative between LASCO, The University of the West Indies (UWI), and the USAID has culminated in the completion of a pioneering solar and battery storage pilot project at the company's White Marl plant in St Catherine. How can battery energy storage help Jamaica?

Battery energy storage systems (BESS) are now emerging as a cornerstone technology to address these challenges—helping Jamaica stabilize its grid, unlock more renewable energy, and reduce electricity costs for both consumers and businesses. The country's electricity cost can reach as high as $0.32 per kilowatt-hour, far above global averages.

Why should a Jamaican company invest in a solar system?

It comes with integrated inverters and smart BMS, providing seamless solar compatibility and dependable backup power—ideal for island and coastal environments. By integrating battery storage with rooftop solar systems or hybrid microgrids, Jamaican companies can maximize renewable use while gaining financial savings and branding advantages.

Why should you use a commercial solar battery in Jamaica?

For sectors such as hospitality, tourism, and logistics—which are vital to Jamaica's economy—battery storage ensures smoother operations, lower electricity bills, and protection against blackouts. One recommended option for Jamaican enterprises is the 215kWh Commercial Solar Battery.

Are microgrids the future of energy in Jamaica?

Microgrids reduce diesel fuel dependency, extend energy access, and promote community-level energy independence. These modular systems can scale with demand and offer a sustainable alternative to costly grid expansion. Battery energy storage systems are no longer optional—they are essential to Jamaica's clean energy future.
