

Solar container communication station EMS is repeatedly boycotted by residents

Overview

Are hidden communication devices in Chinese-manufactured solar panels a threat?

Recent findings have uncovered hidden communication devices within Chinese-manufactured solar panels, sparking serious concerns over the security of national power grids.

Do Chinese solar power inverters have undocumented communication devices?

However, undocumented communication devices have reportedly been found in some Chinese solar power inverters. And over the past nine months, such devices—including cellular radios—have also been found in some batteries from Chinese suppliers.

Should solar-powered roads be scanned for Rogue devices?

REUTERS/Mike Blake By Jana Winter and Raphael Satter WASHINGTON (Reuters) - U.S. officials say solar-powered highway infrastructure including chargers, roadside weather stations, and traffic cameras should be scanned for the presence of rogue devices - such as hidden radios - secreted inside batteries and inverters.

Are undocumented cellular radios being discovered in foreign-manufactured power inverters?

The four-page security note, a copy of which was reviewed by Reuters, said that undocumented cellular radios had been discovered “in certain foreign-manufactured power inverters and BMS,” referring to battery management systems.
