Overview

What is the difference between grid tied and off-grid solar?

Lastly, grid-tied and off-grid systems have different costs. A grid-tied solar system is more cost-effective, not needing battery storage or a backup generator. The additional equipment of off-grid systems increases costs, but in areas where grids aren't available, the off-grid system is a more viable choice. Which is Better Grid-Tied or Off-Grid?

What is an off-grid Solar System?

An off-grid solar system is a solar panel system that has no connection to the utility grid at all. To keep a house running off-grid, you need solar panels, a significant amount of battery storage, and usually another backup power source, like a gas-powered generator.

What is a grid tied solar system?

Grid-tied systems are solar panel installations that are connected to the utility power grid. With a grid-connected system, a home can use the solar energy produced by its solar panels and electricity that comes from the utility grid. If the solar panels generate more electricity than a home needs, the excess is sent to the grid.

Should you choose off-grid or grid-tied solar panels?

When deciding between off-grid and grid-tied systems, there are several pros and cons to consider. Battery storage. Surplus energy stored in batteries can be used during periods of low sunlight when the solar panels cannot generate sufficient power. No credit potential. Excess energy isn't stored in the grid and can't be exchanged for credit.
