Uninterruptible Power Supply for Micronesia Substations

Overview

What is an uninterruptible power supply (UPS)?

The uninterruptible power supply (UPS) provides a dependable backup power to the protective relay (s) in the event the primary power source is lost. The UPS was specifically designed for use with the ABB Distribution Unit (DPU) and the ABB Integrated Microprocessor Protective Relay System (IMPRS) relays.

Why should you install a UPS system in a substation?

With UPS installations in plants and substations, you can guard against downtime throughout your entire infrastructure. Avoid the irony of a power plant without power with uninterruptible power supplies to ensure the continuity of the utility's supply and minimize disruptions.

What are the requirements for power supplies and ups in critical infrastructures?

Specific requirements for power supplies and UPS systems in critical infrastructures concern reliability, robustness, and security: UPS systems ensure an uninterrupted power supply during power outages and enable an orderly shutdown of systems during prolonged outages.

Why do energy supply companies use DC UPS systems?

Energy supply companies use DC UPS systems in combination with remote control technology to protect the control systems of their power plants and to ensure the integration of renewable energies through transfer stations and distribution networks such as local secondary substations.
