Wind power solar supporting energy storage project in Krakow Poland

Overview

Will Poland become a hotbed of energy storage project development?

Poland, Europe's tenth-largest economy, is set to become a hotbed of energy storage project development as the share of renewable energy on its grid soars. The country built out a record 1.2 GW of onshore wind power in 2023, according to industry body WindEurope, bringing its total installed capacity to around 9.4 GW.

What is Poland's energy storage subsidy?

Learn about Poland's €1 billion energy storage subsidy aimed at installing 5.4 GWh of BESS by 2028, strengthening grid stability and accelerating the green transition.

Why should Poland invest in energy storage?

Development of energy production and consumption forecasting systems. Energy storage subsidy programs support the transformation of Poland's electricity grid into a more flexible and resilient system. Investments in storage facilities enable better integration of RES, improve grid stability and enhance the country's energy security.

How can energy storage support Poland's electricity system?

By addressing challenges such as peak load balancing and frequency regulation, energy storage enhances the resilience and flexibility of Poland's electricity system. The storage support program is expected to begin accepting applications in the second quarter of 2025. Full details and deadlines will be published by the NFOŚiGW.
